Privacy Policy

This document sets out the policies of South Australian Rostrum Incorporated relating to the collection, storage and disposal of member's personal information.

We uphold the National Privacy Principles contained in the Privacy Act 1988.

Our Privacy Officer is responsible for ensuring that our privacy policies are adhered to.

We only collect information that is necessary to meet the aims and objectives of our organisation.

In order to fulfil these aims Rostrum collects information such as: your name, address, telephone numbers, and email addresses.

We respect your privacy.

Rostrum collects this information, by asking you to complete a form when you join a Rostrum Club. And the information provided is considered current until you advise of any changes.

You may choose not to provide all of this information, in which case Rostrum may not be able to keep you informed of its activities.

Disclosure of personal information

We will not provide your personal information to any other individuals or organisations outside of Rostrum without your permission.

We will not publish your name in our Directory without your permission.

We will not publish your photo in any Rostrum publication without your permission.

Accuracy and security of information

We take all reasonable precautions to ensure the information collected is accurate and up to date. You have the right to access your personal information and to correct it if it is out of date, incorrect or inaccurate.

You can also contact us with any questions you might have with regards to the privacy policy.

We keep all information in a secure place and safeguard that information against misuse, loss, unauthorised access and modification.

To contact us

If you have any questions relating to our Privacy Policy please contact the SA/NT Rostrum Privacy Officer – see the website for detail.
